

Oriella Dorella, étoile

Born in Milan, Dorella studied at La Scala Theatre Ballet School since she was 8 years old. She made her official debut as a solo dancer in 1972 becoming the étoile of La Scala Theatre Ballet in 1986. Dorella is a versatile and sensitive artist and has a rigorous technique. She danced in the most important theatres in the world partnering with famous dancers, such as Nureyev. She left La Scala Theatre in 1994.

She was also a television personality, and her television appearances include the Saturday night variety show Fantastico and several television films.

Oriella Dorella has always been dedicated to social causes and is especially devoted to children. Most of her television appearances have in fact been in support of these causes.

(datasource: www.risorsedanza.com)